MacOS Configuration

- Setting a Static IP - MacOS

Setting a Static IP - MacOS

1. Click on the Apple logo in the top right and select System Preferences

Image not found or type unknown

2. Click on

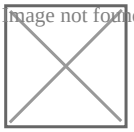

Network

Image not found or type unknown

3. Select Ethernet

Image not found or type unknown

4. Change Configure IPv4 to Manually

Image not found or type unknown

5. Enter the IP details provided by BarWeb Support Staff
6. Click on Advanced...

Image not found or type unknown

7. Click on the DNS Tab
8. Click on the + icon and enter the IP

208.67.222.222

Image not found or type unknown

9. Click OK
10. Click

Apply

Image not found or type unknown

