Windows Configuration

- Setting a Static IP - Windows 10

Setting a Static IP - Windows 10

1. Click on Start and type in "Control Panel"
   Image not found or type unknown
   2. Click on Network and Internet

   (If Control Panel is set to icon view, go to Step 3)
   Image not found or type unknown
   3. Click on Network and Sharing Centre
   Image not found or type unknown
   4. Click on Change Adapter Settings (Located on the left menu)
   Image not found or type unknown
   5. Right click on the Ethernet

adapter and select properties

Image not found or type unknown

6. Click on Internet Protocol version 4 so it is highlighted then click the properties button

Image not found or type unknown

7. Click the bubble next to Use the following IP

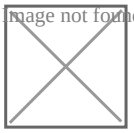
Image not found or type unknown



8. Enter the details provided by BarWeb Support staff and click OK